Recently updated with wood-plank-look tile floors in the main living areas and newer plush carpeting in the formal living room, dining room and bedrooms. The kitchen boasts newer refinished cabinets, stone counters and stainless steel appliances. High vaulted ceilings throughout contribute to the very spacious feel in the home. The living room and family room feature cozy gas fireplaces. Designer paint tones make the home feel warm and inviting. Super clean executive style home easily lends itself to indoor-outdoor gatherings. The living room, family room and master bedroom open onto the covered patio running across the entire back of the house that overlooks the pool/spa and large grassy play area, perfect for bocce ball, croquet, horse shoes or any other kind of play. Unlike a lot of desert communities, Regency Estates features sidewalks and street lights throughout the community.
