Every detail has been thought of in this turnkey home located in the prestigious and renowned Point Dume Club of Malibu. The home features oversized glass sliders, a bright open-concept living space with raised ceilings and many designer touches throughout. The kitchen has been fully upgraded with modern white counter tops and high-end stainless steel appliances. Each of the four bedrooms boast an ensuite bathroom that has been tastefully updated. An additional powder bath and laundry room can be found off of the main living space. The primary bedroom opens up to a private deck with views of the Pacific Ocean. Another covered deck oversees the large backyard and views of the Point and ocean, perfect for entertaining. The front of the home allows for four parking spots and additional parking around the property. The property comes with all of the many amenities of the Point Dume Club, including 24-hour gated security, a large clubhouse with a beautiful pool, spa, saunas, BBQ...
