With stunning 360 degree views of native wildflower prairie, rolling hills of the Driftless area, and Botham Vineyards, this Lannon stone masterpiece sits on Iowa County's highest point. The house received an architectural makeover by Udvari Solner, reimagining the impressive master suite and adding custom cabinetry and woodworking. A highlight of the home is the light-filled spa room with an exercise pool/therapeutic hot tub and refreshment zone/wet bar. It adjoins the master bathroom suite - the bathroom of which spans the length of the house, with heated slate floors, dual vanities, a double walk-in shower, jetted whirlpool tub with panoramic views, and a huge custom closet.

The living room is made for entertaining, from concerts to formal events, with soaring wooden beams, custom theatrical lighting/sound, a gas fireplace with stone hearth, and ready access to the massive wraparound deck. The open floor plan allo...
