This beautifully redone 3br/2ba coastal-chic home is located on a peaceful street in Point Dume Club, one of the most desirable communities along the California coastline. Just moments from world-famous Zuma Beach - plus great local restaurants, a wide array of shops, and top-rated schools - the property offers a singular blend of next-level style and comfortable livability. The inside-and-out renovation features elegant lofted ceilings, spectacular wood-paneled walls, and bleached hardwood floors. The designer kitchen is flooded with natural light that spotlights the custom-poured concrete countertops/island and sleek cabinetry. An airy, open floor plan creates seamless flow between the dining, living, and outdoor spaces, with sliding doors that open from the living room (which also offers a stylish fireplace to enjoy on colder days) onto a large, ultra-private back patio. One of the more spacious garden areas in the park, this lushly-landscaped backyard contains mature fruit an...
