Set on a tree-lined street in one of NW Glendora's most charming neighborhoods & situated on nearly half an acre of lush grounds, this whimsical & romantic 5 bed, 5 bath Neo-Colonial Estate is straight out of a fairy tale. Circa 1915, this architectural beauty is rumored to have been originally built for a well known silent film actress, Mary Miles Minter. It was in the same family since the 1960's until recently being taken over by the current owners to be lovingly & painstakingly restored with no detail spared! Endless updates pay respectful tribute to the architectural era in which the home was built with inspirational design nods to the Art deco Era as well: All of this is blended with immaculate craftsmanship & modern upgrades galore. There are too many special features to name, but several include: new oak flooring, custom dual-pane wood windows throughout, hand crafted board & batten woodwork, soaring cathedral ceilings and period appropriate wall paper...
