This lovely Traditional home has been gently lived in with tender loving care given to it from the owners throughout the years. The living room has a beautiful bay window and a fireplace. There is a large paneled family room with fireplace and there appears to be hardwood floors underneath the carpeting. The spacious formal dining room has a large picture window overlooking the private yard with many mature camellia bushes and orange tree. The built-in china cabinet is perfect for storage. The eat-in-kitchen is light and bright with a window over the sink area. The laundry room is located next to the kitchen. The garage is attached with direct entry into the home. This home is loaded with original detailing for buyers who are looking for a home with these qualities. Located walking distance to two parks in the canyon, the golf course, elementary school and transportation.
