This single story Spanish home has great curb appeal. Large picture windows throughout make this home very light and bright. All the rooms are spacious. There are beamed ceilings in the living room and formal dining room. The breakfast nook has built in shelving. There is a large patio in the front with views of the serene canyon. Master bedroom has a remodeled bathroom and hardwood floors throughout. There is an approximate 300sq ft basement that can be used as an office or workout room. There is also extra parking on the other side of the detached garage. Freshly painted interior and many extra details throughout. Walking distance to the park, tennis court and hiking trails. For buyers that are looking for that true Spanish home that has many original details that are hard to find, please see this home. It has a very homey open floor plan.
