This single story traditional home is truly one of the most impeccable homes on the market. The pictures say it all! The owners have lovingly maintained the home and it shows pride of ownership. The living room has a fireplace, recessed lighting and crown molding. The formal dining room & living room have hardwood floors. There are beautiful plantation shutters throughout the home. The remodeled kitchen has limestone floors and granite counter tops, a farm house sink and some glass cabinets. The bathrooms have been tastefully remodeled. There is a family room with a fireplace that leads to a beautifully landscaped back yard. Includes newer central air, newer roof, some copper plumbing and an alarm system. Walking distance to the park and elementary school. A home like this doesn't come on the market too often.
