Designed by the iconic architect, Paul R. Williams, this splendid example of mid-century design features tall ceilings with clerestory windows & an expansive, open floor plan. With no homes located behind the house, the huge yard is very private with a slope that backs to Ladera Linda Park & hiking trails. For the last 52 years, this home has belonged to the original owner, so now is the first time this home is offered for sale. Over the years, some modifications were made to the home, including the creation of a breakfast room adjacent to the kitchen with an interior staircase leading to the garage. The approximately 40' x 16' patio was professionally enclosed with beamed ceilings, skylights & walls of glass doors & windows. The patio/family room opens to the living room & dining area. The owner states there are hardwood floors under the carpets in most of the house with the exception of the patio room. The roof was replace...
