This well thought-out open floor plan has been upgraded to the max and is sure to delight the most sophisticated buyer. Custom ceiling fans, crown molding, custom window coverings, real hardwood flooring and stone tile all work together to make this one of the best in the community. The island kitchen features extra windows and a skylight, a large pantry, and a computer work station. Two large bedrooms and a large den or office make this ideal for the work at home senior. The master bedroom has sliding door access to the private patio, and also has a large walk-in closet and master bath with walk-in shower. The family room has a slide-out tray for a large screen television and built-in glass-doored curio cabinets. The attached garage is full of storage and custom cabinets on all sides, including a workbench, yet leaves room for two full size automobiles. The yard has been professionally landscaped, with a grass yard for your pet, dog run on the side, and ...
