Imagine the pride and peace of mind from knowing that practically everything is new! The original 1955 home was taken down to the slab and a portion of framing, then completely rebuilt from the ground up. High ceilings and a wide open floor plan create a feeling of great space and casual elegance. While creating masterpieces in your gourmet kitchen, you can see through the great room into the large and private back yard. The master suite is a sanctuary with luxury soaking tub and walk in shower. Hurry!
