This classically modern home, showcased by century oak trees on a very private street with Gulf breezes and magnificent sunsets, is a real "find" for the discriminating buyer seeking privacy, freedom, and a joyful sense of life.

From the second you step through the door, you know this home (designed by nationally known architect Frank Bosworth) is spectacular. A stunning Gulf view greets you with open arms through a "wall of glass" in the large living room. Your marble-floored entry and open design convey a delightful sense of freedom. Your formal dining room is perfect for family and entertaining. Relaxing views in the separate family are the epitome of Florida living, and you can enjoy a fire in the large fireplace on those rare, cool, evenings.

Stepping out onto your screened, huge lanai
