Welcome to the Cottages at De La Vina!

This pride-of-ownership cottage collection features three elegantly coordinated condominiums on one property: the 1920's impeccably restored California Cottage serving as the inspirational template for the more recently constructed units. All three condominiums sparkle with abundant light, vaulted ceilings, and a creative collage of artistic details including slate tiling, wainscot-style cabinetry and period-correct light fixtures and hardware. Though conveniently located within a few blocks from downtown, they all manage to capture some of Santa Barbara's natural beauty with surprising peeks of the mountains and hilltops. And with attractive drought tolerant landscaping, an embedded compass design as the driveway center piece and cleverly concealed m...
