This jewel of a property is perched high atop historic Adams Hill, on a quiet street on the border of Glendale and Glassell Park. The views from this enchanting home are not just great, but superb, as the street name suggests.

Fully remodeled with love and attention to every detail by its owners, the ground level offers 2 beds with vaulted ceilings and 2 beautiful baths, red oak wood floors, a vaulted and beamed living room that opens to a sunken dining room, a kitchen with quartz countertops and Sub-Zero and Bosch appliances, and a large deck that overlooks Glendale, Griffith Park, the Observatory and the most breathtaking sunsets. The downstairs guest unit or studio/work space is accessed separately and offers a large living area with wet counter, full bath, bedroom and an oversized deck with the same superb views.
