Townhouse vs. a Condo: In a townhouse you own the ground below you and the air above you. Pine Ridge Home Owner's Association does a great job on the common grassy areas, walkways and parking; while keeping the association dues very low. This apartment has one full bathroom, and two half bathrooms, plus washer and dryer and some storage. The current owner spent a lot of time and money creating a sharp contemporary remodel.

Vail InDeed is a Town of Vail program that will GRANT (no paying it back) 15%-20% of the sales price in return for keeping this residence as a local property. Local homeowners to live in and/or investors who commit to renting only to local professionals and workers. If you qualify for the mortgage and have a small amount of cash for the down payment; Vail InDeed might be a good fit for you.
