Natural light and open spaces abound in this recently renovated center hall colonial. When entering through a marble entry foyer you will find a formal dining area to the right and to the left through French Doors, a den with expansive custom built-in bookshelves with a matching desk and gas fireplace. Ahead lies the central living room with ultra high ceilings, dual palladium windows overlooking the patio and manicured lawn, a wood burning fireplace, and three broad entryways. On the left is a multipurpose room with a custom built-in bar, matching cabinets and wine fridge. On the right is a huge kitchen and eat-in area with seating for six, all drenched in natural light through a wall of windows and french doors, with direct access to a barbecue outside. The kitchen has a full length island, custom lighting, and GE Monogram appliances, including a six burner range with built in grill and dual ovens.

Upstairs on the right you will find two large bedrooms with crown molding and walk-in closets, sharing a bright modern bathroom with two sinks and a separate bathing area. On the left is a guest bedroom with it's own new bath and a large linen closet. Further down the hall sits the master suite, which is truly a suite. It features a sitting area with room for a full sofa and 60" TV, huge his and hers walk-in closets with custom shelving, as well as a spacious master bath that incl...
