This lovely gentleman's farm features 48 acres. The main house, built in 1754, welcomes you with its charm of an era gone by. This colonial home offers five fireplaces. A kitchen, half bath, and a bedroom, that may also be used as an office, a large dining room, formal living room and family room are located on the main floor. There are four bedrooms and bath located on the second floor, in which two have a fireplace. This lovely colonial home features wide plank flooring through out. The laundry area is located on the first floor as is the back patio overlooking some of the forty eight acres where you will enjoy warm summer evenings with natures friends close by.

The 1600 sq ft carriage house serves as an appropriate and charming accentuation to the pristine grounds offering living space of four bedrooms a dining and living room, two full baths and an office. The property offers a three car garage with ample storage space.

The nearby eleven stall barn will comfortably accommodate your horses.

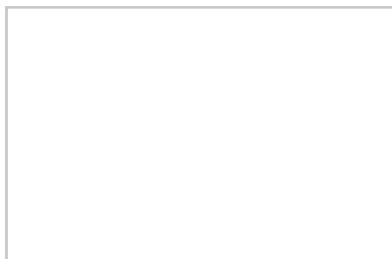

Enjoy the beauty this lovely estate offers every season. While enjoying easy access to modern conveniences, shopping, eateries, highway access and TF Green Airport are surprisingly only minutes away.
